

YOUTH ATHLETIC AFFILIATIONS

These organizations offer Eden Prairie youth the opportunity to learn a sport and participate in leagues, clinics and tournaments. Each organization is operated independently by volunteer parent boards. They may use city and school facilities; however, they manage their own budgets and organize their own registration, tryouts, cost and scheduling.

For more information about any youth athletic affiliations, please contact the organizations at the phone numbers and Web sites listed below.

EDEN PRAIRIE SOCCER CLUB

The Eden Prairie Soccer Club (EPSC) offers a competitive soccer experience that includes travel for youth ages 7 and up to play in the spring and fall, with a winter training program. Spring registration is usually held in February, with the season running from May into July; fall registrations are taken in August. All 800 players attend skill-evaluation sessions so they may be placed at an appropriate team level. EPSC hosts the Eden Prairie Cup, a Midwest tournament with more than 30 brackets featuring teams from seven states and several foreign countries.

EDEN PRAIRIE VOLLEYBALL ASSOCIATION

Registration is in August with practice and games being played on Thursdays and Saturdays for third through sixth graders from late August to October. The Junior Olympic teams, grades 5 through 10, will have tryouts in November, with practice on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Questions? Contact 952-949-1126 or visit theepgaa.com.

EDEN PRAIRIE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

800 youth in grades 3 through 8 learn the fundamentals of football, sportsmanship, discipline and the importance of team play. Each participant will learn to play offense and defense positions. Teams are formed with an equal distribution of talent and weight limits are established for each grade. Registration is held in May; equipment pickup and skills evaluation are both in August with the season beginning in August running through October. Grades 4 through 8 will play out-of-town games. Summer camps, led by EPHS head coach Mike Grant, are also held to refine skills.

EDEN PRAIRIE HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

As the third largest hockey organization in Minnesota, the Eden Prairie Hockey Association (EPHA) serves more than 800 boys and girls from ages 4 to 18. They learn the skills and strategies involved in hockey while having fun. Registration and tryouts are held in September, with the season running from November to March. Rookie camps are held in the fall and spring. Nine-year-olds and older participate in travel teams playing against our neighboring communities. A girls-only hockey experience with a 'no checking' policy is available for girls ages 14 and under.

EDEN PRAIRIE WRESTLING

The Eden Prairie Wrestling Club is a K through 8 program. Prior experience is not required. We make every effort to match experience and ability levels during practices. Like any sport, some athletes wrestle year-round, others (especially first- and second-year wrestlers) feel a three-month season is adequate. To accommodate this we have two sessions: mid-November to mid-January or mid-January to mid-March.
